

Who's in your community?

Everyone has a community...

They are people we help, and the people we depend on for help. But if you became ill and couldn't speak for yourself, would your community know your wishes?

Do they know who would speak for you?

Learn more about advance care planning and how to start the conversation about your wishes for future health care:

www.advancecareplanning.ca

#mycommunity

Speak Up