

We, the undersigned, are in agreement with sharing Advance Care Planning materials including but not limited to educational resources. We assume no person or organization shall claim copyright over modified versions. We further assume individual authors and organizations will be acknowledged as the author of the source publication. We would also ask that you seek permission prior to "selling" any materials to another party for commercial purposes.

We wish you the best in your endeavors and look forward to any feedback as you implement Advance Care Planning. We would also appreciate it if you would confirm in writing your agreement with these terms at the address noted in this letter.
